Venice, Octob. 25. N. S.

ONe of our Men of War ſailed from hence laſt Saturday, with 3 Ships under his Convoy, having on board a great quantity of Ammunition, and a conſiderable Sum of Money for the Service of the Venetian Forces in Dalmatia. Our Letters from thence ſay, a Body of Turks had appeared before the Fortreſs of Singli on the Borders of that Province; but upon the approach of our Troops, which are drawn together in a Body to cover that Frontier, they retired. We have no freſh Letters from our Fleet in the Archiepelago. They write from Rome, That the Pope's Galleys are returned to Civita Vecchia; and that Cardinal Grimani is ſet out from thence for Vienna.

Lemberg, Octob. 18. The Gentlemen of the Province of Samagitiſia have ſent Deputies hither, to repreſent the Diſorders that continue in that Province, as well as in the reſt of the Great Dutchy of Lithuania, by reaſon of the Animoſities between the Family of Sapieha and the contrary Party, and to deſire the Meeting of the Diet or General Aſſembly ſummoned at Grodno, may be allowed of, and the too great Power of the Houſe of Sapieha, which cannot but give much Jealouſie to their Country, may be moderated. The King received them very well, but has not thought fit to authorize the intended Meeting at Grodno, promiſing to come ſhortly himſelf, and ſettle the Affairs of Lithuania: But 'tis ſaid he will not begin his Journey thither before the return of the Biſhop of Raab from Saxony, who is gone to demand freſh Supplies of Money from the Eſtates of that Electorate, for paying the Arrears due to his Army before they go into Winter-Quarters. The Emperor's Miniſter, the Pope's Nuncio, and ſeveral other Publick Miniſters and Perſons of Quality who accompanied the King to this place, are returned to Warſaw, where 'tis ſaid a General Diet will be held this Winter.

Dantzick, Octob. 28. We are expecting to hear what Reſolution the Magiſtrates of Elbing have taken, upon the receipt of the Elector of Brandenburgh's Letter of the 21 inſtant. In the mean while General Brandt continues in the Neighbourhood of that Place, and has received a Reinforcement of Men, with a Train of Artillery: And 'tis reported, that this morning he again ſummoned the Magiſtrates to receive a Gariſon of the Elector of Brandenburgh's Forces.

From the Imperial Camp near Arat, Octob. 20. On the 12th inſtant, the Army being then encamped near Sablin, we received advice that the Turks were ſending another Convoy of Proviſions to Temeſwaer, upon which Prince Eugene ſent out a ſtrong Body of Horſe to intercept them, with Orders afterwards to march to Upper Hungary, to join the German Forces poſted along that Frontier. The ſame day Count Schlick, one of the Emperor's Ambaſſadors for treating the Peace with the Turks, came to the Camp from Futaré (where all the Plenipotentiaries from the Emperor and his Allies are arrived) and having conferred with our General, returned thither the ſame day. The 14th the Count of Thierheim was ordered to march with a Regiment of Horſe and two Battalions of Foot to Peter-Waradin, and to attend the Ambaſſadors during the Negociation. The 15th Col. Solari was ſent with 9 Battalions of Foot to Segedin, to which Place an Officer of the Artillery followed the next day with 20 Pieces of Cannon, under a ſtrong Guard. The 17th the Army began to repaſs the Theyſſe, and the 18th we encamped on the other ſide that River: That day Count Guido of Staremberg was detached from the Army with the greateſt part of the Foot, and ſome Regiments of Horſe, and ordered to march towards Peter-Waradin; and ſeveral Detachments were likewiſe ſent to Tranſilvania and Upper Hungary, to reinforce the Forces that are poſted on thoſe Borders, to cover them from the Enemy's Excurſions. An Order has been publiſhed in the Camp for obſerving an exact Neutrality at the Place of Congreſs, and in a certain Tract of Land round about it, the Bounds of which reach along the Danube from Illock to Semlin, from thence along the Save to Poſſut, and to the Towns of Nemza, Moravis, and Raska, and back again to Illock.

Vienna, Octob. 26. The Miniſter of Brandenburgh reſiding here, has notified to this Court, That it being agreed by a Treaty between the Crown of Poland and the late Elector of Brandenburgh, Father to his preſent Electoral Highneſs, that the Town of Elbing in Pruſſia ſhould remain in the Elector of Brandenburgh's hands, as a Pawn till payment be made of a very conſiderable Sum of Money due to him from that Crown; the Elector his Maſter not having hitherto received any Satisfaction herein, had found himſelf obliged to do himſelf Juſtice, by commanding his Forces to take poſſeſſion of Elbing, which he intended to reſtore ſo ſoon as the Debt ſhould be ſatisfied. The Emperor's Miniſters have had ſeveral Conferences concerning the Repartition of Winter-Quarters for the Troops in Hungary, which is at laſt agreed on, and will be ſent to Prince Eugene of Savoy, as ſoon as the Emperor has
